Oral presentation

Oral presentation is an art

Making a good oral presentation is an art that involves attention to the needs of your audience, careful planning, and attention to delivery.

What is an oral presentation

An oral presentation is where you show your knowledge on a particular subject. You might be able to choose your topic, or maybe you have been given something to research and talk about to audience...

“An oral Presentation is a formal, structural and systematic presentation of a message to audience”.

Features

An oral Presentation is a form of communication. It is participative two way communication process characterized by the formal and structured presentation of a message using visual aids. It is purposeful, interactive and audience oriented. It communicates a message to audience in a way that brings about the desired change in their understanding and opinion

Forms of Oral Presentation

Seminars
Workshop symposia
Student and Team Presentation
Departmental Presentations
Conferences
Press Inference of Product launches
Annual general meeting
Profile presentation

Why oral presentation is important?

Why oral presentation is important?

- Oral presentations have become a useful and effective way to increase students' awareness of communication skills. Thus, students' presentations become an important element in delivering positive learning experiences. ... This is the ultimate result of a successful presentation.

Barriers to Effective Presentation

How do you write an oral presentation ?

How do you write an oral presentation ?

- To ensure an engaged audience for your talk, follow these practices:
- Introduce and Conclude. Use a formal introduction at the beginning of your talk and a summary afterwards to highlight your major points. ...
- Present in Sections. ...
- Spell out the Objective. ...
- Use Handouts. ...
- Offer Q&A.

How to make a good Oral Presentation

How to make a good Oral Presentation

1. Conquering stage fright.
2. Knowing the audience
3. Content of the presentation
4. Structure of the presentation
5. Delivery of the presentation
6. Remembering 4PS
7. Timing

How to Conquer stage fright

1. Conquering stage fright

- Some amount of stage fright is helpful
- The main reason is that we are not accustomed to speak in public
- Symptoms in beginners are trembling arms, excessive sweating, lack of fluency etc-are mental blocks
- Prepare the subject thoroughly
- Do some warm up exercises such as rotating arms, moving the facial muscles, taking deep breath etc before speaking
- Positive thinking-'I will make the presentation' and 'I am confident
- Drink water

Knowing the audience

2. Knowing the audience

Before planning we should consider-

The age group of the audience
Know the need of the audience
Utility of the presentation for the audience
Information gained after attending the presentation
Determine audience's size & composition
Estimate the audience's level of understanding

Audience Mood

Be empathic with your audience's mood

Watch your audience's body language; their facial expressions, glances exchanged, shuffling of feet etc.

Audience Mood

Project the right degree of formality

Use good pace and drive

Don’t be arrogant - this will turn your audience against you

Control your enthusiasm

3. Content of the Presentation

1. It should not be too difficult to understand

2. If too long shorten the content according to the time available

3. Include examples and instructions to support the argument

4.Structure of the presentation

Introduction	• Introduce the topic
Body	• Provide detail information to the audience about the topic • Use anecdotes or raise question to arouse interest
Conclusion	• State the goal and uses of the presentation • Leave the audience with a positive feeling about you and your ideas

5.Delivery of the Presentation

5.Delivery of the Presentation

A. The quality of the voice-

- Adjust your tone according to the size of the audience
- Use micro phone or collar mike
- Give pauses to allow the listener to understand
- Pronounce difficult words properly and correctly

Speak comparatively slow so the audience can digest what you are saying

B. Rapport with the audience-

- Look into the eyes of the audience while presenting
- Shift from one pair of eye to another so that you have a glance of all of them.
- Try to involve the audience in present action by asking questions

C. Pay attention to Body Language

- Express your confidence in your smile and movements
- Stand straight and do not stagnate at one place
- Avoid unnecessary movements of hands
- Always dress in formals
  Avoid hands in pockets

D. Effective use of Visuals aids

Remember the value of pictures, symbols and objectives
Use a plain font of substantial size-18 point or more.
Do not use more than three colors
Practice before how to operate the equipment

6.Remembering 4PS

A. Planning

Define a purpose

Analyze the audience

Analyze the occasion

Select a suitable title

B. Preparation

Develop the central idea

Develop the main ideas

Gather supporting information

Introduction

Body

Conclusion

C. Practice

- Rehearse before presenting it to the audience
- Time the presentation
- Outline the presentation

D. Perform

Begin the presentation with confidence

Be organized

Pay attention to non-verbal behavior.

Use4 appropriate visual aids.

7. Timing

Make sure you end on time

Observe the division of time from the introduction to body and to the conclusion

8. Conclusion

Finish with equal enthusiasm as was on start

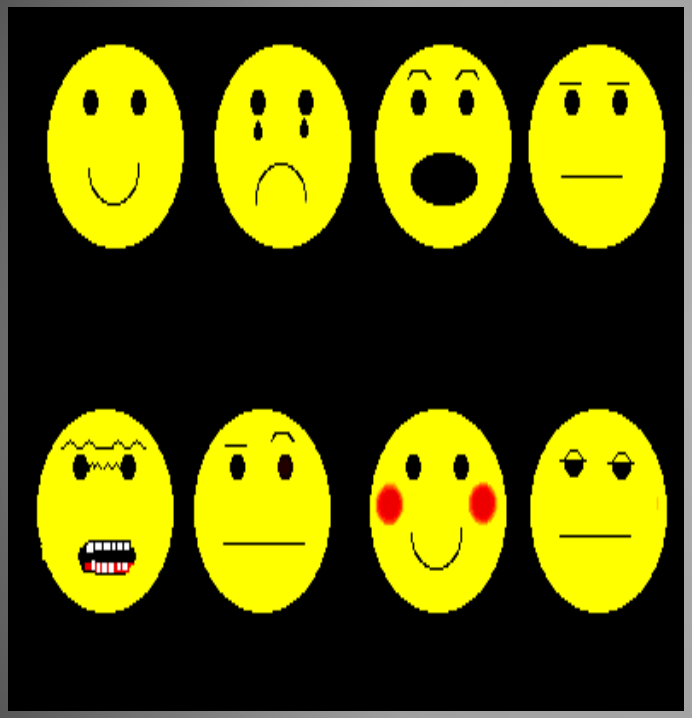

Ask the audience for action

Leave no doubt in your audience’s mind that you have come to an end of your presentation

Non verbal communication :

posture,
appearance listening eye contact hand gestures facial expressions.

Non verbal communication

Last but not the least

“There are no secrets to success.

It is the result of preparation, hard work, and learning from failure.”

Gen. Colin L. Powell

Any Questions

Thank you!