DEPARTMENT OF History & Pakistan Studies

Course Plan For "Pakistan Studies"

Semester: Spring-2025

Credit Hours: 2

Course Code: (GE-106)

Instructor Name:Gulsion Naseem

Week 1	Introduction: importance- Geographical location and significance of Pakistan	2
Week 2	Geographical Features - Physiography: Mountains, plateaus, plains, deserts, and coastal areas- River systems: The Indus River and tributaries	2
Week 3	Climate and Environment - Climatic regions of Pakistan- Environmental and climatic diversity and challenges	2
Week 4	Ancient Civilizations - Indus Valley, Gandhara, Mehrgarh, and Soanian cultures Contributions and preservation of ancient heritage	2
Week 5	Historical Background - Historical influences: Empires, trade routes, and cultural exchanges- Arrival of Islam and the rise of Muslim dynasties	2
Week 6	The Mughal Era and British Rule - Mughal cultural contributions- Decline of Mughal power and British colonization/QUIZ	2

Week 7	Freedom Movement - Role of Sir Syed Ahmed Khan and Aligarh Movement Formation of All-India Muslim League and Two-Nation Theory	2
Week 8	Key Events in the Struggle for Pakistan - Key events: Lucknow Pact, Khilafat Movement, Lahore Resolution- Round Table Conferences and political evolution/ Partition and Formation of Pakistan - Mountbatten Plan, partition, and independence- Initial challenges: Refugee crisis, governance, and national identity	2
Week 9	MID TERM	2
Week 10	Constitutional Development - Early attempts: Objectives Resolution and constitutions of 1956, 1962, 1973- Evolution of political and governance structures	2
Week 11	Military Interventions - Causes and impacts of military takeovers- Role of judiciary, civil society, and political leadership in interventions/Presentations	2
Week 12	Democratic Transitions - Phases of democratic consolidation: Successes and setbacks- Recent trends and future challenges/ Presentations	2
Week 13	Economy and Society - Economic sectors: Agriculture and industry- Socio cultural diversity: Ethnic, linguistic, and regional variation/ Presentations	2
Week 14	Foreign Relations - Relations with neighbors, global powers, and Islamic nations- Pakistan's role in regional/global conflicts/ Presentations	2

Week 15	Contemporary Challenges - Security issues: Terrorism, extremism, and hybrid warfare- Climate change, governance, and socioeconomic inequalities/ Presentations	2
Week 16	Future Prospects - Pakistan's role in achieving Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)- Summary, review, and future outlook/ Presentations	2